- NEW catalogue description (if this is a new course or change request):

Analysis of the historical, social, political and educational dimensions of "Cougar Pride" and contemporary implications for CSU students.

- Specific reason for the new, changed, suspended, or deleted course (include assessment results as justification if applicable):

Assessment results show that awareness of "Cougar Pride" increases retention rates and student success as a measure of the mastery of Cougar Studies; Adding a course to focus on increasing "Cougar Pride" will increase awareness and will assist in the development of the Cougar Studies program.

- If this is a UG/GRAD course, please explain the specific differences in assignments/grading criteria for receiving graduate credit.

The course is intended for undergraduate instruction only.

9. Effect of the addition, deletion, changed or suspended course on other programs, departments, or colleges:

Other colleges and programs have not required COUG 2000 yet; therefore no other colleges or programs are affected by this program addition. We anticipate having ongoing discussions with other departments and programs to explore where the Cougar Studies program might be further developed.

10. Budgetary and Staffing Implications:

Current "Cougar Studies" Staff possess the requisite knowledge, training and expertise to offer one course per semester; budget allocations for this course have been approved at the College level. No additional budget or staffing issues are anticipated.

11. Proposed Effective Date for Course Change: Fall 2017

Effective: February 15, 2017
