

Minutes
Provost Council
October 12, 2016, ADM 301

Present: P. Carney, C. Coleman, D. Collins, S. Collins, J. Cook (guest), R. Darga, L. Dawson, S. Green, L. Jones, J. Jor'dan, N. Maynard, B. Rowan
Regrets: A. Henderson, L. Roundtree

The meeting commenced at 1:10 p.m.

J. Cook announced an effort to make CSU campus tours by students groups even more informative and asked for buy-in from colleges for several upcoming dates. Students will be able to attend a class or other academic experience/demonstration as stops on the tour. This is to respond to student feedback. Other planned efforts may include shadowing programs and informationals for families regarding financial aid requirements.

J. Cook thanked the Council for their efforts to prepare for the Open Doors initiative. While the CPS strike did not occur, the outreach potential is impressive.

B. Rowan indicated the Provost requests and invites all Academic Affairs and college/departamental personnel to attend the upcoming Assessment Fair on either Monday, October 17, or Tuesday, October 18, 2016, 12:30 – 2:00 p.m., in the Library Auditorium. The university's assurance filing will be previewed so that university personnel can take related information back to their areas. Deans should organize related/analogous events for their colleges.

K. Dawson requested that Admissions attend the Council to inform members about current process and practice in terms of admissions.

B. Rowan reminded deans that if they have not submitted the recently requested development reports to do so. Also please prepare and forward planning for outreach to community colleges and/or area high and middle schools for ERG efforts.

C. Coleman indicated that she will share information on leadership from an Academic Impressions resource she is purchasing for the College of Pharmacy.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:08 p.m.
